

Jesus wants us to give ourselves completely to Him. As believers in Christ we are called to follow Him and be obedient to His Word. The life given to God is the fulfilled life.

Romans 12:1

Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God--this is your spiritual act of worship.

Romans 12:2

Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is--his good, pleasing and perfect will.

The “much mores” of Romans tell us of the Lord’s ability to save and keep us eternally.

Christ gave His life to save us and will never allow us to perish.

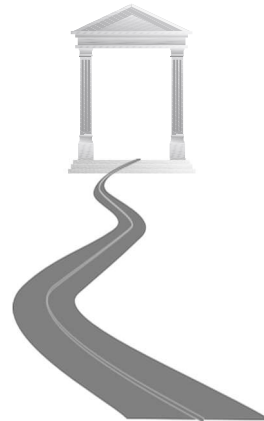

Romans 5:9-10

Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through him!

If His death had such power to save us, how much more will His life have power to keep us?

[10] For if, when we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!

The Romans Road

The Romans Road

The following Scriptures will tell you how to be forgiven for your sins and have a right relationship with God. They all come from the Bible as found in the Book of Romans.

The "Romans Road" will lead you to eternal life in Christ.

The bad news of the Roman Road is that no one has met God's righteous standards and because of this, our sin will keep us out of heaven.

Romans 3:23

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

Romans 5:12

Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned--

It is possible for someone to be forgiven of their sins and have a right relationship with God. But how can this occur?

Romans 4:7

"Blessed are they whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

Romans 4:8

Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord will never count against him."

The good news is that although we are sinful and separated from God, Jesus died so that we could be forgiven.

Romans 6:23

For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Jesus died for our sins so that we might have eternal life. He did this because of His great love for us.

Romans 5:8

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 4:25

He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

A person is saved by believing in Jesus. We must come to a place where we will put our faith in His finished work on the cross.

Romans 10:9

That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Romans 10:10

For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved.

When someone puts their faith in Christ they are safe for eternity. God's salvation is able to keep us now and forever.

Romans 8:35-39

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? ³⁶As it is written:

"For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered." ³⁷No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, ³⁹neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
